

Richard “Dick” Shields

1894 – 1949

Mr. Shields was a persistent and successful drilling contractor, oilfield supplier and developer in the MidContinent field. He drilled his first well near Russell, Kansas with a borrowed rig. Within several years, he emerged as one of the leading petroleum producers of Western Kansas.